Re: Member Education Seminars

As a reminder, the Board of Directors is requiring all members and DPM trading floor staff to attend one of the May 2000 Educational Seminars. This program is mandatory. Members who fail to attend their scheduled seminar must reschedule with the Trading Procedures Office by calling Angela Schons at 786-7559 or Elsa Wang at 786-7947.

These seminars are being conducted in the Members' Lounge of the CBOE Building at 3:30 p.m. The length of each seminar is approximately one hour. The dates of the remaining seminars are as follows:

Tuesday May 23, 2000:	Members whose last name begins with P, Q or R
Wednesday May 24, 2000:	Members whose last name begins with S or T
Thursday May 25, 2000:	Members whose last name begins with U, V, W, X, Y or Z
Wednesday May 31, 2000:	DPM trading floor staff.

Members who did not attend the May 2nd, 4th, 10th, 11th or May 15th seminars can make arrangements to attend on any one of the above remaining dates. Failure to attend this mandatory program may result in a fine under CBOE Rule 17.50 and in a referral to the Business Conduct Committee for further disciplinary action. DPMs should ensure that their trading floor staff attend the program.

Questions regarding these seminars or scheduling conflicts may be directed to Angela Schons at 786-7559 or Elsa Wang at 786-7947.
