RE: Restrictions on Transactions in
Crucell N.V. ("CRXL")

Effective March 28, 2011 Crucell N.V. will be delisted from the NASDAQ. Trading in Crucell N.V. will commence on the Other OTC market under the symbol CRXLY.

Trading on the CBOE in existing series of CRXLY options will be subject to the following restrictions. Only closing transactions may be affected in any series of CRXLY options except for (i) opening transactions by Market-Makers executed to accommodate closing transactions of other market participants and (ii) opening transactions by CBOE member organizations to facilitate the closing transactions of public customers executed as crosses pursuant to and in accordance with CBOE Rule 6.74(b) or (d).

The execution of opening transactions in CRXLY options, except as permitted above, and/or the misrepresentation as to whether an order is opening or closing, will constitute a violation of CBOE rules, and may result in disciplinary action. Member organizations should ensure that they have appropriate procedures in place to prevent their customers from entering opening orders in this restricted option class. In addition, transactions in contravention of this restriction may be subject to nullification pursuant to Exchange Rule 6.25.

There are no restrictions in place with respect to the exercise of CRXLY options. The provisions of this circular apply to any options on CRXLY traded on CBOE.
