Cboe Global Markets Recognized as Designated Listing Exchange in Japan for U.S. Equities

Today, Cboe announced the Japanese Financial Services Authority (JFSA) has added Cboe Global Markets – U.S. Equities to the regulator's list of Designated Foreign Financial Instrument Exchanges. This recognition by JFSA eases regulations related to disclosures for retail investors and certain discretionary accounts, a change that is expected to facilitate Japanese investment in Cboe-listed securities. See the press release for more.

Cboe Bitcoin Futures

Trading in Cboe bitcoin futures (XBT) saw an uptick this week with total volume on Monday and Wednesday surpassing 4,000 contracts. Yesterday, total volume eclipsed the 5,000 contract threshold for the first time and today, volume was on pace to exceed 15,000 contracts.

Tax Bill Update

Today, President Trump signed the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act into law. We are happy to confirm that the final legislation does not include a mark-to-market provision for derivative products nor the previously proposed FIFO (first-in first-out) provision.

Thank You and Happy Holidays

As 2017 draws to a close, we wanted to take this opportunity to thank all of you, our TPHs and customers, for your continued support and business throughout the year. We wish you a joyous holiday season and a new year of health, happiness and prosperity.

We encourage your input on these and other exchange matters. Please feel free to contact us.
