

Cboe Australia – Publication of the Listing Rules and Listing Rules: Procedures; Change to the Operating Rules: Procedures

25 November 2025
Reference ID: 0005|25

OVERVIEW

Applicable Cboe Exchanges: Cboe Australia

Cboe Australia has today published:

- the finalised versions of the Listing Rules and Listing Rules: Procedures; and
- a change to the Operating Rules: Procedures to include quoted securities of Listees as an “auction eligible product”

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Cboe Australia published draft Listing Rules in April 2025 and consulted with prospective listees, industry associations and other stakeholders. The Listings Rules and Listing Rules: Procedures were submitted to ASIC as part of the application by Cboe Australia to launch a listings market and the application was approved by ASIC on 3 October 2025.

Cboe Australia has also made a change to the definition of ‘auction eligible product’ in the Operating Rules: Procedures to ensure that securities of Cboe listees will be eligible for auctions.
