Description of Services:

Tick Box	Service Name and Description of Services
<input type="checkbox"/>	Switch Port Access: Physical network port at Cboe Europe Equities or Cboe Europe Derivatives demarcation (this applies by default to Participants and Market Data Vendors).
<input type="checkbox"/>	Cboe RIE/RM or APA Access: Access by the Recipient to the Cboe Recognised Investment Exchange (RIE)/Regulated Market (RM) or Approved Publication Arrangement (APA) for and on behalf of trading participants/ trade reporting customers (this applies by default to Service Bureaus).
<input type="checkbox"/>	Network Connectivity/Extranet: Access to the Cboe RIE/RM to provide third parties with access to Cboe and/or data feeds (this applies by default to Extranet providers).

For Extranet providers, Cboe RIE/RM may be accessed to: (1) receive the Cboe Multicast feed (the "Feed") and to distribute the Feed to Authorised Third Parties; and (2) provide an Authorised Third Party with network connectivity services in order to access or receive information from the Cboe RIE/RM. An Authorised Third Party is a party that: (1) has entered into an effective and current participant agreement and/or market data recipient agreement with Cboe; and (2) Cboe has approved to connect to Cboe via connectivity supplied by Recipient or to receive Cboe data transmitted through the Recipient. In order for a party to be approved, the Recipient must submit a request to Cboe at NOCEurope@cboe.com that includes the name and contact information of the party to whom connectivity will be provided. Cboe will typically approve or reject a request within two (2) business days, but is under no obligation to respond within that time frame. Where a request is rejected by Cboe, the Recipient may not provide the applicable party with connectivity to Cboe. The Recipient shall maintain, keep current, and provide to Cboe upon request, a list of Authorised Third Parties to whom Provider provides either or both of the services under (1) and (2) above.*

This Order Form is made between Cboe and the Recipient and is governed by the connectivity, service bureaus and other access services standard terms & conditions (the "CA Terms"), as applicable from time to time and available at the following webpage:

http://cdn.cboe.com/resources/participant_resources/Cboe_EU_CSBA.pdf

The Recipient confirms that it has read and understood the CA Terms and this Order Form and accepts to be bound by them.

Please return the completed Order Form, duly executed, to NOCEurope@cboe.com.
