

Cboe Europe Corporate Listings

Local access, global reach

Cboe is the world's only exchange operator facilitating access to both global capital and secondary liquidity. We empower companies to unlock growth through a seamless path to list across our unified marketplaces. Backed by 50+ years of building trusted markets, Cboe is your gateway to going public — and going global.

Who we are

Unlike other exchanges, Cboe operates a fully integrated global network across the U.S., Canada, the UK, the EU, and Australia — enhancing issuer visibility and access to capital. Through its regulated exchanges in the Netherlands and the UK, and as the largest pan-European exchange by market share, Cboe offers transparent, efficient listing and trading across 18 European markets, unlocking deep liquidity.

Why List Your Company on Cboe Europe?

Through more efficient eligibility & governance requirements, Cboe Europe's listing framework improves transparency and reduces complexity for all stakeholders.

Global Liquidity Access

Listing with Cboe provides access to secondary market liquidity in multiple currencies across its global exchanges, connecting you with international investors.

Seamless Intralisting Opportunities

Companies can easily expand across Cboe markets through intralisting, unlocking broader access to global capital and assets.

Centralised Global Account Support

A unified account management model streamlines communication and enhances the listing experience across all Cboe markets.

Supportive Local Regulatory Advocacy

Cboe Europe works with issuers to address regulatory barriers and identify solutions that enable our UK and Netherlands exchanges to support their business.

Cboe Europe's Listing Solutions

Tailored Listing Options to Suit Your Strategy

Cboe Europe offers flexible listing pathways designed to meet the diverse needs of companies at various stages of growth and across global markets.

Primary Listing	Secondary Listing	Cboe Intralisting
The standard route for companies and closed-ended investment vehicles to list or transfer their shares. It allows for secondary market trading and capital raising in UK/Europe, with issuers required to comply with Cboe Europe's full listing framework and requirements.	Allows companies already listed on an approved overseas exchange to gain a secondary listing in UK/EU. It supports dual-market trading, enhancing liquidity, investor reach, and cross-border capital raising. Issuers remain governed by their home exchange's rules, with limited Cboe Europe requirements and eligibility conditions.	Enables listed companies to access capital and secondary liquidity across multiple markets through a single, streamlined framework.

Cboe Intralisting: Global Reach, Local Simplicity

Unique to Cboe, Intralisting allows companies listed on one Cboe exchange to seamlessly cross-list on other Cboe exchanges worldwide. This unlocks global investor access while keeping operations simple.

Key Benefits:

- Gain international investor exposure through a single, local listing.
- Operate efficiently using Cboe's harmonised rules and integrated technology.
- The flexibility to choose between offering trading access or raising new capital in additional markets.

Intralisting is an efficient, structured way to expand your market presence across Cboe's global network.

From Pre-Launch to Post-Launch, including Regulatory Advocacy and Marketing.

List with Confidence. Grow with Cboe Europe.
