

Regulatory Circular RG11- 106

DATE: September 9, 2011

TO: Trading Permit Holders

FROM: Market Operations Department

RE: Restrictions on Transactions in
Wonder Auto Technology, Inc. ("WATG")

Effective September 12, 2011 the NASDAQ will delist Wonder Auto Technology, Inc. ("WATG"). Trading in Wonder Auto Technology, Inc. will commence on the Other OTC market under the symbol WATG.

Trading on the CBOE in existing series of WATG options will be subject to the following restrictions. Only closing transactions may be affected in any series of WATG options except for (i) opening transactions by Market-Makers executed to accommodate closing transactions of other market participants and (ii) opening transactions by CBOE TPH organizations to facilitate the closing transactions of public customers executed as crosses pursuant to and in accordance with CBOE Rule 6.74(b) or (d).

The execution of opening transactions in WATG options, except as permitted above, and/or the misrepresentation as to whether an order is opening or closing, will constitute a violation of CBOE rules, and may result in disciplinary action. TPH organizations should ensure that they have appropriate procedures in place to prevent their customers from entering opening orders in this restricted option class. In addition, transactions in contravention of this restriction may be subject to nullification pursuant to Exchange Rule 6.25.

There are no restrictions in place with respect to the exercise of WATG options. The provisions of this circular apply to any options on WATG traded on CBOE.

Any questions regarding this circular may be directed to Kerry Winters at (312) 786-7312 or Regulatory Services Division at (312) 786-7730 or (312) 786-8460.
