RE: Bid-Ask Differentials for TLRY

Partially Updates Cboe Options Regulatory Circular RG16-073

Cboe Exchange, Inc. (“Cboe Options” or the “Exchange”) rules allow it to set the bid-ask differential requirements on a class-by-class basis. Except as provided below, the current bid-ask differentials are set forth in Cboe Options Regulatory Circulars RG18-014 for SPX and RG16-073 for all classes other than SPX.

Effective March 18, 2019 and through the close on June 21, 2019, the maximum bid-ask differentials for electronic quotes (intraday and opening rotation) for TLRY are as provided below.

Quote Bid	Maximum Differential
0.00 - 100.00	$20.00
100.01 - 200.00	$32.00
Greater than 200.00	$48.00
