Cboe BYX Exchange, Inc.
LETTER OF CONSENT
File No. URE-421-06/ Matter No. 2024081420801

In the Matter of:

TD Arranged Services LLC, formerly known as ATM Execution LLC
1 Vanderbilt Avenue, 11th Floor
New York, NY 10017,

Subject

Pursuant to the provisions of Cboe BYX Exchange, Inc. (“Cboe BYX” or the “Exchange”) Rule 8.3 – Expedited Proceeding, TD Arranged Services LLC, formerly known as ATM Execution LLC (“ATMC” or the “Firm”), submits this Letter of Consent for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below.

The Firm neither admits nor denies that violations of Exchange Rules have been committed, and the stipulations described herein do not constitute such an admission.

BACKGROUND

1. During all relevant periods herein, ATMC was acting as a registered Broker-Dealer and was an Exchange Member.
2. The Firm changed its name in February 2025 and is now known as TD Arranged Services LLC. ATMC terminated its registration with Cboe BYX on December 18, 2024. Cboe BYX retains jurisdiction over the Firm pursuant to Exchange Rule 8.1.

VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

Applicable Rules

3. During all relevant periods herein, the following rule was in full force and effect: Exchange Rule 5.1 – Written Procedures.
4. During all relevant periods, Cboe BYX Rule 5.1 provided, in relevant part: “[e]ach Member shall establish, maintain and enforce written procedures which will enable it to supervise properly the activities of associated persons of the Member and to assure their compliance with applicable securities laws, rules, regulations and statements of policy promulgated thereunder, with the rules of the designated self-regulatory organization, where appropriate, and with Exchange Rules.”

Supervision for Potentially Manipulative Trading

5. Firms that facilitate proprietary or customer trading activity are responsible for monitoring that activity to identify and follow-up on potentially manipulative practices.
6. Between December 2021 and December 2024 (the “Relevant Period”), ATMC failed to reasonably surveil for instances of potentially manipulative trading where multiple customers worked in concert to potentially manipulate the market, such as potential prearranged or coordinated trading. The Firm had no system to detect potential manipulation effected by groups of accounts working in concert, such as potential prearranged or coordinated trading by multiple customers within an omnibus account¹²
7. In addition, the Firm’s written supervisory procedures (“WSPs”) failed to address potentially prearranged or coordinated trading or how the Firm would detect, surveil for, and/or prevent such manipulative trading strategies. The WSPs also failed to address the circumstances in which the Firm should inquire about the ultimate beneficial owners of securities held in an omnibus account.
8. During the Relevant Period, ATMC’s WSPs also failed to address momentum ignition, when a market participant initiates a series of orders or transactions in an attempt to ignite a price movement in that market or a related market, or how the firm would detect, surveil for and/or prevent this potentially manipulative trading strategy.
9. As a result, ATMC sent orders to the Exchange that the Firm did not reasonably surveil for potentially manipulative trading activity.
10. The acts, practices, and conduct described in Paragraphs 5 through 9 constitute violations of Exchange Rule 5.1 by the Firm, in that the Firm failed to establish, maintain and enforce a reasonably designed supervisory system, including reasonably designed WSPs, to enable the Firm to supervise orders for potential manipulative trading in certain circumstances.

SANCTIONS

11. The Firm does not have any prior relevant disciplinary history specifically related to supervision of potentially manipulative trading.
12. In light of the alleged rule violations described above, the Firm consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

² See SEC Division of Trading and Markets, Staff Bulletin: Risks Associated with Omnibus Accounts Transacting in Low-Priced Securities, October 2023 (describing key red flags from FINRA Regulatory Notice 19-18, such as “[t]wo or more unrelated customer accounts at the firm trade an illiquid or low-priced security suddenly and simultaneously”). See also FINRA, 2019 Report on FINRA Examination Findings and Observations, (noting deficiencies in firms’ transaction monitoring for suspicious activity, resulting in failure “to detect red flags such as market dominance, prearranged trading or instances where groups of seemingly unrelated accounts were working in concert to manipulate stock prices”).

- a. A censure; and
- b. A monetary fine in the amount of $8,333.34.³

If this Letter of Consent is accepted, the Firm acknowledges that it shall be bound by all terms, conditions, representations, and acknowledgements of this Letter of Consent, and, in accordance with the provisions of Exchange Rule 8.3, waives the right to review or to defend against any of these allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a Hearing Panel. The Firm further waives the right to appeal any such decision to the Board of Directors, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, a U.S. Federal District Court, or a U.S. Court of Appeals.

The Firm waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the Chief Regulatory Officer (“CRO”) in connection with the CRO’s participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this Letter of Consent, or other consideration of this Letter of Consent, including acceptance or rejection of this Letter of Consent.

The Firm agrees to pay the monetary sanction(s) upon notice that this Letter of Consent has been accepted and that such payment(s) are due and payable. The Firm specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that it is unable to pay, now or at any time hereafter, the monetary sanction(s) imposed in this matter.

The Firm understands that submission of this Letter of Consent is voluntary and will not resolve this matter unless and until it has been reviewed and accepted by the CRO, pursuant to Exchange Rule 8.3. If the Letter of Consent is not accepted, it will not be used as evidence to prove any of the allegations against the Firm.

The Firm understands and acknowledges that acceptance of this Letter of Consent will become part of its disciplinary record and may be considered in any future actions brought by the Exchange or any other regulator against the Firm. The Letter of Consent will be published on a website maintained by the Exchange.

The Firm understands that it may not deny the charges or make any public statement that is inconsistent with the Letter of Consent. The Firm may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of the Exchange, or to which the Exchange is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this Letter of Consent. Nothing in this provision affects the Firm’s (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Exchange is not a party. The Firm may attach a Corrective Action Statement to this Letter of Consent that is a statement of demonstrable corrective steps taken to prevent future misconduct. Any such statement does not reflect the views of the Exchange or its staff.

The undersigned, on behalf of the Firm, certifies that a person duly authorized to act on its behalf has read and understands all of the provisions of this Letter of Consent and has been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that it has agreed to the Letter of Consent’s provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth herein, has been made to induce the Firm to submit it.
