The proposed rule change was approved by the Exchange's Office of the Chairman pursuant to delegated authority on January 29, 2010.

Item 3. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

Weeklys are listed index and equity options that match all other terms of standard options except they are listed for trading for only one week and expire on Fridays other than the third Friday of a month.¹ Currently, the Exchange charges public customers ("C" origin code) a transaction fee of $.40 per contract in standard and Weeklys options in OEX and XEO. (b) Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")², in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(4)³ of the Act in particular, in that it is designed to provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among its members and other persons using its facilities. The proposed reduction in the customer transaction fee for OEX and XEO Weeklys options should attract additional order flow to the Exchange in these products.

Item 4. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

This Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
