If the self-regulatory organization is amending only part of the text of a lengthy proposed rule change, it may, with the Commission's permission, file only those portions of the text of the proposed rule change in which changes are being made if the filing (i.e. partial amendment) is clearly understandable on its face. Such partial amendment shall be clearly identified and marked to show deletions and additions.

1. Text of the Proposed Rule Change

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Act”),<sup>1</sup> and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,<sup>2</sup> EDGX Exchange, Inc. (the “Exchange” or “EDGX”) is filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) a proposal for the Exchange’s equity options platform (“EDGX Options”) to amend Interpretation and Policy .07 (Mini Options Contracts) to Rule 19.6 (Series of Options Contracts Open for Trading). The Exchange has designated this proposal as non-controversial and provided the Commission with the notice required by Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii) under the Act.<sup>3</sup>

(a) The text of the proposed rule change is attached as Exhibit 5. Material proposed to be added is underlined. Material proposed to be deleted is enclosed in brackets.

(b) Not applicable.

(c) Not applicable.

2. Procedures of the Self-Regulatory Organization

The proposed rule change was approved by senior management of the Exchange pursuant to authority delegated by the Board of Directors of the Exchange on February 11, 2014. Exchange staff will advise the Board of Directors of the Exchange of any action taken pursuant to delegated authority. No other action is necessary for the filing of the rule change.

3. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change.

(a) Purpose

The Exchange proposes to amend Interpretation and Policy .07 to Rule 19.6 regarding Mini Options Contracts traded on EDGX Options, to replace the name "Google Inc." with "Alphabet Inc." Google Inc. ("Google") recently reorganized to create a new public holding company called Alphabet Inc. ("Alphabet"). As a result of the holding company reorganization, each share of Class A Common Stock ("GOOG"), which the Exchange has listed as a Mini Options Contract, has automatically converted into an equivalent corresponding share of Alphabet Inc. stock. The Exchange also proposes to change symbol "GOOG" in Interpretation and Policy .07 to Rule 19.6 to "GOOGL" to make the EDGX Options Alphabet Class A Common Stock Mini Options Contract symbol consistent with the Alphabet symbols used across the national exchanges.

The Exchange proposes this change to Interpretation and Policy .07 to enable the Exchange to list and trade Mini Options Contract on Google, now Alphabet, Class A shares. The Exchange is proposing to make this change because, on October 5, 2015 Google reorganized and as a result underwent a name change.

The purpose of this change is to ensure that Interpretation and Policy .07 to Rule 19.6 reflects the Exchange's intention to be able to list and trade Mini Options on an exhaustive list of underlying securities enumerated in Interpretation and Policy .07 to Rule 19.6. This change is meant to continue the inclusion of Class A shares of Google (now Alphabet) in the current list of underlying securities that Mini Options Contracts can be traded on, while making clear that Class C Capital Stock shares of Google (now Alphabet) are not part of that list as that class of options has not been approved for Mini Options Contracts trading. As a result, the proposed change will help avoid confusion.

(b) Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder that are applicable to a national securities exchange, and, in particular, with the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act.<sup>4</sup> Specifically, the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act<sup>5</sup> because it would promote just and equitable principles of trade, remove impediments to, and perfect the mechanism of, a free and open market and a national market system and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. Additionally, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)<sup>6</sup> requirement that the rules of an exchange not be designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers.

In particular, the proposal to change the name Google to Alphabet to reflect the new ownership structure is consistent with the Act because the proposed change merely updates the current name to allow for continued Mini Options Contracts trading on Google's (now Alphabet) Class A shares and changes the symbol "GOOG" to "GOOGL" to be consistent with other national exchanges. The proposed change will allow for continued benefit to investors by enabling the Exchange to provide them with additional investment alternatives.

4. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The proposed rule change does not impose any burden on intra-market competition because it applies to all members and member organizations uniformly. There is no burden on inter-market competition because the exchange is merely attempting to continue to have the ability to list and trade Class A shares of the company formerly known as Google, now Alphabet, as a Mini Option Contract. Additionally, the changing the "GOOG" symbol to "GOOGL" will be a change in name-only. The new symbol will continue to represent shares of Google's (now Alphabet's) Class A shares. As a result, there will be no substantive changes to the Exchange's operations or its rules.

5. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants or Others

The Exchange has not solicited, and does not intend to solicit, comments on this proposed rule change. The Exchange has not received any written comments from members or other interested parties.

6. Extension of Time Period for Commission Action

Not applicable.

7. Basis for Summary Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(3) or for Accelerated Effectiveness Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)

The Exchange has designated this rule filing as non-controversial under Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act<sup>7</sup> and paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.<sup>8</sup> The Exchange asserts that the proposed rule change: (1) will not significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest, (2) will not impose any significant burden on competition, and (3) and will not become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate. In addition, the Exchange provided the Commission with written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change, along with a brief description and text of the proposed rule change, at least five business days prior to the date of filing, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission.<sup>9</sup> The Exchange notes that the proposed change is a change in nomenclature only and will not effect any substantive change. Accordingly, the Exchange has designated this rule filing as non-controversial under Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act<sup>10</sup> and paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.<sup>11</sup>

The Exchange respectfully requests that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay so that the proposed rule change may become effective and operative upon filing with the Commission pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act<sup>12</sup> and paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.<sup>13</sup> Waiver of the 30-day operative delay will allow the Exchange to immediately accurately reflect the name of the company associated with the proposed symbol GOOGL as soon as possible. The Exchange believes that waiver of the operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest, as it will avoid investor confusion that could result from the continued reference to “Google” in the Exchange’s Rules when the company is now named Alphabet.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

(Release No. 34-_____; File No. SR-EDGX-2015-60)

Self-Regulatory Organizations; EDGX Exchange, Inc.; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of a Proposed Rule Change to Rule 19.6, Series of Options Contracts Open for Trading

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Act”),<sup>1</sup> and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,<sup>2</sup> notice is hereby given that on _____, EDGX Exchange, Inc. (the “Exchange” or “EDGX”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I and II below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Exchange has designated this proposal as a “non-controversial” proposed rule change pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act<sup>3</sup> and Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii) thereunder,<sup>4</sup> which renders it effective upon filing with the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange filed a proposal for the Exchange’s equity options platform (“EDGX Options”) to amend Interpretation and Policy .07 (Mini Options Contracts) to Rule 19.6 (Series of Options Contracts Open for Trading).

The text of the proposed rule change is available at the Exchange’s website

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant parts of such statements.

(A) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to amend Interpretation and Policy .07 to Rule 19.6 regarding Mini Options Contracts traded on EDGX Options, to replace the name "Google Inc." with "Alphabet Inc." Google Inc. ("Google") recently reorganized to create a new public holding company called Alphabet Inc. ("Alphabet"). As a result of the holding company reorganization, each share of Class A Common Stock ("GOOG"), which the Exchange has listed as a Mini Options Contract, has automatically converted into an equivalent corresponding share of Alphabet Inc. stock. The Exchange also proposes to change symbol "GOOG" in Interpretation and Policy .07 to Rule 19.6 to "GOOGL" to make the EDGX Options Alphabet Class A Common Stock Mini Options Contract symbol consistent with the Alphabet symbols used across the national exchanges.

The Exchange proposes this change to Interpretation and Policy .07 to enable the Exchange to list and trade Mini Options Contract on Google, now Alphabet, Class A shares. The Exchange is proposing to make this change because, on October 5, 2015 Google reorganized and as a result underwent a name change.

The purpose of this change is to ensure that Interpretation and Policy .07 to Rule 19.6 reflects the Exchange's intention to be able to list and trade Mini Options on an exhaustive list of underlying securities enumerated in Interpretation and Policy .07 to Rule 19.6. This change is meant to continue the inclusion of Class A shares of Google (now Alphabet) in the current list of underlying securities that Mini Options Contracts can be traded on, while making clear that Class C Capital Stock shares of Google (now Alphabet) are not part of that list as that class of options has not been approved for Mini Options Contracts trading. As a result, the proposed change will help avoid confusion.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder that are applicable to a national securities exchange, and, in particular, with the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act.<sup>5</sup> Specifically, the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act<sup>6</sup> because it would promote just and equitable principles of trade, remove impediments to, and perfect the mechanism of, a free and open market and a national market system and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. Additionally, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)<sup>7</sup> requirement that the rules of

an exchange not be designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers.

In particular, the proposal to change the name Google to Alphabet to reflect the new ownership structure is consistent with the Act because the proposed change merely updates the current name to allow for continued Mini Options Contracts trading on Google's (now Alphabet) Class A shares and changes the symbol "GOOG" to "GOOGL" to be consistent with other national exchanges. The proposed change will allow for continued benefit to investors by enabling the Exchange to provide them with additional investment alternatives.

(B) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The proposed rule change does not impose any burden on intra-market competition because it applies to all members and member organizations uniformly. There is no burden on inter-market competition because the exchange is merely attempting to continue to have the ability to list and trade Class A shares of the company formerly known as Google, now Alphabet, as a Mini Option Contract. Additionally, the changing the "GOOG" symbol to "GOOGL" will be a change in name-only. The new symbol will continue to represent shares of Google's (now Alphabet's) Class A shares. As a result, there will be no substantive changes to the Exchange's operations or its rules.

(C) Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants or Others

The Exchange has not solicited, and does not intend to solicit, comments on this proposed rule change. The Exchange has not received any written comments from members or other interested parties.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (A) significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (B) impose any significant burden on competition; and (C) by its terms, become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed or such shorter time as the Commission may designate it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act<sup>8</sup> and paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder,<sup>9</sup> the Exchange has designated this rule filing as non-controversial. The Exchange has given the Commission written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change, along with a brief description and text of the proposed rule change at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is: (1) necessary or appropriate in the public interest; (2) for the protection of investors; or (3) otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.
