Summary of Issues

On or about June 22, 2006, Kevin Keller and Kell/Martinez, LLC (“Claimants”), filed a Statement of Claim (“Statement of Claim”) against Jason Martinez (“Respondent”). Claimants’ Statement of Claim alleges Respondent’s withdrawal of funds in the amount of $195,314.04 (“funds” or “monies”) combined with Respondents resignation and refusal to return the monies constituted a breach of the Kell/Martinez Operating Agreement (“Operating Agreement”) and that Claimants have a legal right to the possession of these funds. Claimant further alleges that the Respondent wrongfully asserted dominion, control and/or possession over the funds and that Respondents conduct was willful and with knowing disregard of Claimants rights over the funds. In such, Claimant requests: (i) an award in the amount of $195,314.04, (ii) interest, (iii) punitive damages, (iv) attorneys fees and other fees, expenses and costs incurred in this claim and (v) all other relief that the Panel may deem appropriate.

Respondent filed an answer to the Statement of Claim on or about August 17, 2006 (“Answer”). In the Answer, Respondent contends that Kevin Keller directed Kell/Martinez, Inc.’s clearing firm First Options of Chicago, Inc. to issue each and every check that Kell/Martinez, Inc. issued to Pioneer Capital Management, Inc. (“Pioneer”) and that Kell/Martinez, Inc. never paid any money to Jason Martinez. Respondent further contends that Claimants have not brought a claim against Pioneer. Respondent contends that Kevin Keller’s wholly owned corporation KLR Trading Corp., Inc. (“KLR”) and Jason Martinez’s wholly owned corporation Pioneer formed Kell/Martinez, Inc. and that based on the Kell/Martinez, Inc.’s Operating Agreement, neither member was required to return any profits or capital that Kell/Martinez, Inc. distributed to them. Respondent further contends that nothing in the Kell/Martinez, Inc.’s Articles of Organization, or any applicable law, would allow Claimants to recover any of the capital distributions it made to Pioneer. Respondent therefore requests that Claimants claim be denied.

In addition to its Answer, Respondent filed a Motion to Dismiss Claimants’ Statement of Claim on August 17, 2006. In his Motion to Dismiss, Respondent contends that (i) Kell/Martinez had no authority to bring this Statement of Claim since the statement of Claim was withdrawn by Pioneer, (ii) that the Statement of Claim does not arise out of Exchange business and (iii) Kevin Keller did not suffer any individual losses. Respondent therefore requested that Claimants’ Statement of Claim be dismissed. Claimants filed a Response to Respondent’s Motion to Dismiss on October 13, 2006. Respondent in turn filed a Reply to Claimants’ Response on October 17, 2006.

After due deliberation and in consideration of all briefs and oral arguments at a pre-hearing conference held on November 17, 2006, and all submissions made by the parties, the undergoing arbitrators denied Respondent’s motion to dismiss pursuant to an Order issued on November 21, 2006 and ordered that this matter proceed to full hearing, which was held on May 2, 3 and 4, 2007.
