Reference ID: C2020012105

Overview

Pursuant to C2 Options ("C2 Options" or the "Exchange") Rule 6.30, Clearing Trading Permit Holders (CTPHs) may request the Exchange restrict their OCC clearing number(s) from being used for give-up purposes by other TPHs by "Opting In" to the list of restricted give-up firms on the Exchange. Such opt in requests must be submitted to the Exchange by CTPHs using the necessary paperwork located hemplex-number(s) from being used for give-up purposes by other TPHs by "Opting In" to the list of restricted give-up firms on the Exchange. Such opt in requests must be submitted to the Exchange by CTPHs using the necessary paperwork located hemplex-number(s) for the list of restricted give-up firms on the Exchange.

If a CTPH opts into the restricted give-up firm list, the Exchange will require written authorization from that CTPH in order to permit another TPH to give up a Restricted OCC Number.

If a CTPH does not opt in, that Clearing TPH's OCC number(s) may be given-up by any other TPH organization on the Exchange.

A list of Restricted Clearing OCC numbers and firms has been posted on the Exchange Website, markets.cboe.com, located here.

Clearing TPH Update

The Cboe C2 Exchange, Inc. would like to inform TPHs that Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC has restricted its OCC Clearing Numbers 010 and 200 effective April 14, 2020. As of that date, any TPH not approved by Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC will no longer be able to use OCC Numbers 010 and 200 as a Give-Up.
