

Cboe Trading Floor Disinfecting and Deep Cleaning Reminder

Reference ID: C2020061500

Overview

Applicable Cboe Exchange(s): Cboe Options

This notice is being issued to remind TPHs that disinfecting and deep cleaning of the Cboe trading floor will occur on a daily basis. As a result of the cleaning process, we recommend TPHs take home or store away in a cabinet or other storage container all personal items (e.g. paperwork, water bottles, etc.) at the end of each business day to avoid damage to these items. Additionally, participants should not consume any products that have been left on the trading floor overnight (e.g. liquids, food, chewing gum, etc.), as residue from the cleaning process may adhere to the surface of such products.
