

CFE Good Friday Holiday Testing Opportunity

Reference ID: C2021021902

Overview

To provide additional opportunities for testing holiday schedule system behavior, the CFE certification trading environment will be configured to observe a holiday trading session beginning Thursday, February 25, 2021. This session is designed to mimic in the certification environment the modified trading hours associated with the 2021 Good Friday holiday, subject to regulatory review.

After the normal CFE certification environment restart on the afternoon of February 25, 2021, the simulated holiday trading session will commence for the business date of March 1, 2021. All times referenced in this notice are Chicago time.
