CFE Update to ZVXT Test Product

On Sunday, May 3, CFE released the Quoting Interface solely for CFE Trade at Settlement (TAS) contracts. As previously announced, in order to allow CFE Trading Privilege Holders (TPHs) to confirm connectivity to any order entry session, including Quoting Match Capacity Allocations, and to ensure proper code path initialization, CFE will make changes to the simulated trading schedule for the ZVXT test product effective Sunday, May 31. See the Tradedesk Update.

Procedural Change for New Option Strike Listing Requests

Effective Monday, June 1, Cboe Options Exchanges will only accept option strike listing requests from Cboe Trading Permit Holders (TPHs). Non-TPH customers who wish to submit option strike listing requests must contact their brokerage or clearing firm to submit the request to the Exchange on their behalf. See the Tradedesk Update.

Options and Futures Symbol Reference File Names

Effective Tuesday, June 9, Cboe will update the names of multiple symbol reference files to include a reference to the applicable exchange as well as the addition of the text "symbol_reference." These changes will be implemented for the BZX, Cboe Options (C1), C2, and EDGX Options Exchanges as well as Cboe Futures Exchange, LLC (CFE). See the Tradedesk Update.

We encourage your input on these and other exchange matters. Please feel free to contact us.
